● SKIPPER'S MOTIVATION

Nils: I am delighted to discover the class40 by this course at the advanced level, Unpretentious but ready, Pierrick and I want to do well. We are delighted to wear the humanist colors of our network of partners on this course with an international dimension.

Pierrick: It gives me pleasure to find my old boat with which I spent my transatlantic race, since we get along well with Nils. A Normandy Channel Race is necessarily a course that is not very relaxing in view of the course (current, level crossings, etc.).
