● SKIPPER'S MOTIVATION

We look forward to the challenge offered by the Normandy Channel Race. For us having raced and cruised many miles in the US and Caribbean, we are excited to race in a new region with new currents and navigational challenges. As we are new to the Class 40, we have been climbing the steep learning curve with the help of many others active in the class.

It is doubly special to be able to race together as father and son.
