● SKIPPER'S MOTIVATION

Aurélien Ducroz: The CIC Normandy Channel Race is an incredible race, with a complexity of commitment and particularly this year with an incredible field. I am very excited to test our new bow and all the improvements we have made to the Crosscall class40 this year and of course very proud to share this adventure with Vincent Riou.

Vincent Riou: We have very different backgrounds with Aurélien but what I like is that we speak the same language. Crosscall is a very versatile and fast boat in all conditions. We will both bring our skills, our desire, our motivation but what counts is to find a common language. With the line-up of skippers planned for the CIC Normandy Channel Race, it's guaranteed to be a great competition and we'll have a great time at sea.
