● SKIPPER'S MOTIVATION

I'm coming back to the CIC Normandy Channel Race for the third time after a great second place in 2021 and 5th in 2022. But this is the first time I'm coming with my own project as a skipper so I'm really happy. I have great memories of this race, which every time promises great battles on the water and a good atmosphere on land. I'm delighted to be taking part this year and I hope to do as well as the previous two editions.
