● SKIPPER'S MOTIVATION

The CIC Normandy Channel Race and especially its course is quite an extraordinary playground. We've both sailed this race several times but it's never the same and that's what makes it so exciting.

You have to play with the currents, the wind shifts and the coastline all the time. The field is going to be quite strong again and we know there are some serious contenders. Dekuple was launched just before the Route du Rhum and refitted to optimise some to optimise a few points of sail. We still have room for improvement and it's this kind of event that allows us to go further. In any case, we know that no one will give up, and neither will we!
