● SKIPPER'S MOTIVATION

It's a real pleasure to be here once again for this fantastic event, the CIC Normandy Channel Race. To round off this intense 2024 season, I've decided to take Sophie aboard La Manche évidence nautique. She comes from the Manche region and has been one of the leading women in ocean racing for many years. So this choice is not simply a choice of gender, but also a choice of skills.

We're both motivated to get a good result in this last 'northern' race of the 2024 circuit. Our experience of double-handed sailing and our range of skills will, I hope, enable us to be the driving force behind this Norman week at sea in the Channel!
