● SKIPPER'S MOTIVATION

Calliste: This is my first race as a duo with Sophie; we're going into it without any pressure, just to get to know the boat on this intense race and this very technical course.

Sophie: Four years ago, accompanied by young asylum seekers from the shelter, I visited Antoine Carpentier at the CIC NCR village, where he was preparing to race on the 161. This year I am the skipper of this boat with an incredible track record. Many people can be proud of this journey because they have contributed to it: Antoine, of course, our sponsors, Legrand, Arkea, and Redman, but also Calliste and the co-skippers involved in the ODD5 project: Thais le Cam, Margot Vennin, Axelle Pillain, Alicia Pfyffer, Colombe Julia, Naho Takahara, Cecilia Zorzi, Charlotte Yven, and Sophie Faguet. We are a team of women aiming for victory in the next Globe 40, and it all starts here! I am delighted to be taking part in this demanding and magnificent race with Calliste!
