● SKIPPER'S MOTIVATION

We are delighted, along with Nicolas, to be returning to this great race in Normandy. What we're looking for here is a high-level challenge, conditions that will test us, put us through our paces and throw us a few curveballs on the finest playing field there is: the English Channel.

As always, it's difficult to define our ambitions, because, like at the start of every year, we're very focused on managing our project at the expense of sporting preparation. That's the lot of all modest teams who are still trying to balance their books mid-season.

So, we're not setting ourselves any limits in terms of the final standings. We'll be there with a huge amount of determination, enthusiasm and joy, and we'll fight right to the end to make the most of it. It's a special season, with the ultimate goal being the solo Route du Rhum Destination Guadeloupe. So, we'll be setting work targets for myself and the boat. Having Nicolas by my side on this intense voyage will save us a lot of time.

Finally, this is also our first meeting with our associations and partners; it marks the launch and makes all the work done in the run-up to the event a reality. It's very exciting.
