● SKIPPER'S MOTIVATION

Pep Costa: "My aim is to keep improving and deliver the best possible performance. I'm really looking forward to teaming up with Pablo again for this CIC Normandy Channel Race. We're keen to put in a strong performance, compete with the leading boats and validate the choices we've made over the past few weeks. This race is also an important step in our preparations for the rest of the season, particularly the Tour d'Irlande and the Drheam Cup. And then, beyond the performance, there's also a lot of fun to be had: sailing with Pablo on such a demanding course is a wonderful opportunity."
